Honor Parts Announced; Penner Valedictorian

The first ten students in the Senior Class were announced by Mr. Ireland in assembly Friday morning, March 12.

The Valedictorian, Gertrude Penner, had an average of 94.6, the highest average, Mr. Ireland said, in his experience here at Gould. Ruth Judkins is Salutatorian. First place in honor parts goes to Sally Adams, with the following, in descending order, also receiving honor parts: Louise Wood, Lawrence Kimball, Martha Crocker, Margaret Mayer, and Harry Swan, with Tim Terry and Richard Elwell tying for ninth place.

The Valedictorian, Gertrude Penner, has been at Gould for four years. She lives in Bethel, and has always maintained the highest average. In 1947 she was chosen by Mr. Ireland and the people of Bethel as their representative to the Girls' State Camp, at Oakland. She sings in the Methodist choir, and teaches a Sunday school class at that church. She is secretary of the Student Council, a member of Varsity Glee Club, and orchestra. She is president of the William Rogers Chapman Club, and is in the New England Music Festival this year. She was a candidate for Carnival Queen, and is active in athletics. She is hiking manager of the Girls' A. A. She is on the Academy Herald editorial staff, and is a member of the National Honor Society. She plans to attend either Oberlin, or Baldwin-Wallace colleges, in Ohio.

Ruth Judkins, Salutatorian, has also been here four years. She lives in Upton, Maine. She was president of her class her freshman year, and is the secretary of the Senior Class. She has been very active in school activities. She is a member of the Varsity and Girls' Glee clubs, and is a member of the National Honor Society. She is Editor-in-Chief of the Blue and Gold, and was a candidate for carnival queen. She has been active in sports, and was singles badminton champion her sophomore year. Her average was 92.77.

Sally Adams, Greenwood Mountain, Maine, is in the Girls' Glee Club. She is in the National Honor Society, and is a writer for the Blue and Gold. She is treasurer of the Science Club, and a member of Camera Club. She was a candidate for carnival queen, and has always been active in sports, making several class teams. She is on the A. A. council for skiing. She was in the three one act plays this year, and was voted class actress. Her average was 91.39.

Louise Wood is a member of the National Honor Society. He is president of the Student Council, and was secretary of his class during his sophomore and junior years. He plays first string football, has been on the Varsity basketball team for two years, and plays baseball, of which he was captain last year.

Martha Crocker is a member of the Girls' A. A. for basketball, and is president of the Girls' dorm council. She has made both class and varsity teams in basketball for two years. She was in the one-act plays last year, and has served on many committees both her years at Gould. She is on the staff of the Academy Herald this year. She plans to continue her education at Simmons.

Margaret Mayer, who has attended Gould for four years, has been on the staff of the Blue and Gold three years. She is a member of the Girls' Glee Club, and Chapman Club. She has been very active in sports, and has made the varsity team in hockey.

BUDDY HOWE HURT WHILE SKIING

Buddy Howe, suffering from a broken femur which he received while skiing, has been taken to the Rumford Community Hospital where it is estimated he might have to stay for three to six months. After checking with Mr. Howe, Mr. Vachon suggested buying Buddy a table ra-

SENIOR PLAY

As the BLUE and GOLD goes to press, the Senior Play, "Dear Ruth," is developing rapidly and satisfactorily. Rehearsals are held twice a day including week ends. These rehearsals will be stepped up to a faster pace within the next few weeks. Mr. Thompson is receiving complete co-operation from his well chosen cast.

Dick Aldrich is doing a marvelous job in the part of the likeable and easy going Lt. William Seawright. Grace Lenfest displays poise and naturalness in the part of Ruth. Humor is supplied by Hezzie Crocker as Dora, the maid. Wilma Croteau appears as Miriam, Ruth's kid sister—a sophisticated and know-it-all teen-ager. Paul Desautels plays the part of Ruth's stuffed-shirt and smooty suitor. Jessie Jones fits well into the part of Mrs. Wilkins, a kind and understanding mother. Barbara Dougherty, a new comer, does a splendid job in the minor role of Bill Seawright's sister. Quick on the up-take and perfect for the part of Chuck Vincent is Dave Farrington. Dick Dysart displays his true professional touch in the part of Judge Wilkins. Appearing briefly at the curtain fall—Bill O'Brien will make his first and long-to-be-remembered appearance to Gould theatrics.

Ann Cummings and Mike Brown are beginning to obtain numerous props and everyone is working together to help make this Senior Play, which will be presented April 9th, a great success.

Girls' Dorm Party

The girls of Gehring Hall entertained their guests from Holden Hall and from town on March 6th at the annual girls' dormitory party. The party began with an inspection tour of the girls' rooms at five-thirty. This was followed by a buffet supper served at six o'clock in the main dining room. Appropriate nautical terms were given to the halls and rooms; an illustration of this would be the name "galley" which was given to the kitchen. After supper everyone gathered in the main dining room to witness the log of Gehring Hall which was presented and read by Frances MacRae, accompanied by some "Sailors." At the close of this program dancing was enjoyed by all. The party ended at ten o'clock.

dio, a suggestion which was met with enthusiasm by the student body. A collection of $27.33 was taken by the Student Council. The radio was purchased during the weekend, shown to the assembly Monday morning, and then sent to Buddy to help alleviate the inconvenience caused by his unfortunate accident.

PAT SHIRLEY WINS
CONSERVATION THEME
CONTEST

As has been the custom for the past few years, Mr. Emery conducted a contest in the Biology classes, in which each student was required to write a 1,000 word theme on conservation in the United States. The members of each class rank the papers, identified by a number only, of the other class. This year the highest average rank was given to the paper written by Pat Shirley, a junior.

In her theme, which is much too lengthy to be printed here, Pat stressed the need of keeping the balance of nature, restoring and repairing as much as possible the harm that man has done in wasting natural resources. In order to be proud of our country, says Pat we must all put as much back into nature as we remove: this particularly applies to lumbermen, farmers, and sportsmen. Pat's theme ends in this way: "It is

The Gould ski team, already State Champions, rallied behind Captain Dick Ireland, to overcome a first-day deficit and win the New England Interscholastic Ski Championship. The meet was held February 13 and 14, in Bethel, except for the downhill race, run on the Wildcat Trail, Pinkham Notch, Lebanon, N. H., led at the halfway mark, due to outstanding performances by Charley Trembly, and Eugene Carr, but not only Gould, but also Putney, Vt., came up fast on Saturday to nose out the Lebanon boys.

On Thursday night, the Gould campus began to be flooded with visitors, as the various teams hit town. Movies of skiing were shown in the gym for all skiers and students. On Friday morning, the boys took off for Pinkham Notch to run the downhill. Richard Snow of Lacombe took top honors with the amazing time of 1:43. Trembly and Caddy Sherrer of Lyndon tied for second, and Marshall, 8, and Ireland, 9, were the only Gould men in the top ten. Lebanon won, with Gould and Lacombe close behind.

The Cross-Country was held on the Bethel course in the afternoon, with Trembly winning, Jim Bodwell, of Andover, second, and Gene Carr, third. Bob Croteau and Bob Adams finished seventh and ninth, respectively. Lebanon, Gould, and Putney finished in that order in the team scores.

In the Slalom race Saturday morning, Lyndon, Burlington, Putney, and Gould all ended up within one-tenth of a point of each other, while Lebanon fell to sixth. Verne Goodwin, of Pittsfield, Mass., was the winner, with Dick Ireland and Jim MacTiernan, of Burlington, close behind. In the Jumping, Andover came to the fore, with the Blue and Gold and the Putney boys in the second and third spots. Lebanon placed sixth again, to put themselves completely out of the running. Dick Ireland won with two jumps over 100 feet, and Jerry Baril of Lyndon and Kenneth Roberts of Andover were second and third. Trembly of Lyndon jumped 107 feet on his first attempt, but fell on his second to drop to 24th place. His jumping gave Dick Ireland enough points to cop the four event title over Sherrer and Carr. The jumping totals raised Putney to second over Lebanon. Hanover and Lyndon finished fourth and fifth. Trophies were awarded and a lunch served in the dining hall after the jumping.

EDITORIAL

Many high schools are following the example set by colleges in starting coeducation classes in subjects dealing with everything from social relationships to love and marriage. Up until recent years this sort of thing has been unheard-of, but now is being demanded by intelligent, serious-minded young men and women.

There has been more or less talk of introducing such a class for juniors and seniors here at Gould recently. Provided the RIGHT INSTRUCTOR, handling the subject frankly, yet without forcing ideas, could head the group, the idea might be successful. A very fundamental requisite would be that it be voluntary AND coeducational, to overcome, rather than deepen, the "hush-hush" attitude and embarrassment. With the cooperation of instructor and pupils, entering into discussion with the attitude of gaining knowledge, as well as facts, valuable help can be obtained.

There is the argument that Gould is too small a place; since everyone knows everyone else, the idea won't work. Some will argue for it, some against it. We think it's up to us to determine whether or not a class of this nature will ever be instituted, and what it will teach. You who are in favor—talk it up!

Under the Cupola

Did anyone happen to look into Mrs. Goggin's room last week? That is if you could see into it. Instead of being filled with bridge players and Miss Stallwood, it was full of girls and Francois. It seems as if everyone was calling home for permission to take advantage of our surprise week-end. Funny thing, though, all those calls went collect.

And with exams came the age-old battle of room-mates and alarm clocks. It seems that room-mates just never can agree on what time they want to get up and study, and as Sally says, "Who wants an alarm clock going off at two-thirty in the morning?"

I hope all the guests aboard the "U. S. S. Gehring" appreciated our spotless rooms. Anyway, we want to thank Mildred and Abbie for carrying away all the dirt. And we're sorry those wheelbarrows were so hard to push up and down the stairs.

Have you heard the latest method of discovering whomakes all the noise after lights? It's really very simple. All you do is wait until about eleven o'clock and then have a fire drill. Then as the girls file down stairs, you can see who is still wide awake and there are the culprits!

Some CYP Club members enjoyed a trip to Waterford Friday night, the 5th of this month. They were invited by the young people of that community to join them in square dances, etc. A bus left from Cotton's at six-thirty and returned later in the evening. Apparently, if the general hubbub was any indication, all enjoyed themselves.

Others of this age group attended the three plays presented by the grammar school that evening. The dramatics were followed by dancing in which the high-schoolers took an enthusiastic part. It was generally agreed that the students "across the way" put on a fine performance. It has been anonymously reported that Don Lord spent an eventful evening Friday in the vicinity of South Paris.

The Headmaster's Corner

Last week I dropped into the room of one of the teachers and found him sitting at his desk with his face as dark as a thundercloud.

"What in the world is the matter?" I inquired.

He started, laughed self-consciously, and tried to pass off his mood as unimportant. But finally he told me what the trouble was. He had just gone out of his way to aid one of the students who was in need of extra help. The student accepted the favor but failed to thank the teacher.

"I suppose it's a little thing, and I shouldn't let it bother me," the teacher explained. "But to tell you the truth it made me 'sore'. He might at least have said 'Thank you'."

I agreed heartily with my friend. The students' conduct was unpardonable. And how foolish he was, to annoy the teacher, who was giving unsparringly of his time, by a bit of careless ingratitude!

Those little words, "Thank you," are often more important than we know. Make them a habit.

HUSKIES END REGULAR SEASON BY DEFEATING FRYEBURG

Feb. 13—Winding up the regular scheduled season in good form the Husky basketballers soundly trounced the Fryeburg Academy five by a score of 54-27 on the Farnsworth floor in Bethel. Taking the lead from the very first toss-up the Gould five controlled the backboards and the ball a good part of the time to garner enough points so that Fryeburg was never able to threaten. The scoring for Gould was led by Davis with 17 points and Hamilton with 12. Cole and Churchill led the Fryeburg scoring with 11 and 8 points respectively.

IRELAND CHOSEN TO REPRESENT MAINE IN JUNIOR NATIONALS

Dick Ireland, Captain of the New England Championship Ski Team, has been chosen by a group of ski coaches present at the New England Ski Championships recently held here in Bethel to represent Maine in the First National Junior Ski Meet to be held at Boise, Idaho, on March 20 and 21.

Ireland has led his team in scoring and won many honors for himself in his skiing career. The final factor that determined his being chosen to go to the meet was his placing second at the Hochebirge Ski Meet held at Cannon Mountain, N. H., where the stiffest competition in the East was found, including Dartmouth and Middlebury college stars.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The ski classes this year have progressed far beyond their past record. Many of the girls have enthusiastically attended classes regularly even though the changeable weather has proved a great disappointment.

The finals for class basketball have been played and the Junior class displayed all their skill by coming out victorious over the experienced, skillful class of '48. The Varsity has also played its final game with the Blue team winning over the Gold.

The girls have proved themselves interested and eager about this sport and a large representation of each class turned out supplying much competition within the individual classes.

Partners having been picked, the badminton tournament is now getting into full swing. Again this year as last, there will be a winners' and a losers' tournament, while the girls who have reached the quarter finals will enter a singles tournament.

With the gym meet approaching, the Modern Dance Club is working hard at its three numbers. The group is divided into two parts, each working on its own dance. The group will create their own steps and then unite in a group to work on the finale which will take place in the annual gym meet.

OPINIONS APPRECIATED

When we asked the leading question "What was your childhood ambition?" we got a diversity of answers.

Mary Alice Hastings said that she had as her major ambition to get into Gould. We believe that, this is one of the few ambitions which have been fulfilled. She says that now what she wants is to get safely through four years and out.

David Kanaly stopped his ardent studying long enough to say that he wanted to be a vitamin. He'd seen a sign saying "Vitamin B1."

Morris Foye, with a clean smiling face, confessed to a desire to be a coalman. When asked why, he had no reason, he just said with a beautiful smile, "Ah, I always have wanted to be one!"

Barbara Jackson wanted to be an Army Nurse.

Joe Kneeland is one of the few people who have vacillated in their choice of a profession. He still wants to be a doctor. More power to him!

Janet Coombs wanted to set the world on fire, so that she could ride on a fire engine.

Teddy Meyer, who always has something new and distinctive to come up with, said that first she wanted to be a second Sherlock Holmes, then she wanted to be a street car conductor.

Tim Terry wanted to jump off the Empire State Building with a parachute. At the time when this paper went to press, he was still hoping.

Sally Adams, after naming several vocations which she refused to have made public, admitted that she wanted to be a snake charmer or a hermit. Hazle Crocker said she wanted to be a truck driver.

But poor Shelby Putnam has yet to achieve his desire; when he was a little boy he wanted to be a big one.

OXFORD COUNTY BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Feb. 19—Breaking the ice in the second annual County Basketball Tournament being held in Bethel the Gould Huskies dropped Mexico from the race in a hard and rough game to the tune of 51-34. Playing a hard but clean game the Huskies surged ahead in the second stanza after a tight first quarter leaving the score 25-16 at the half. Leading the scoring and playing a good game was Hamilton with 23 points followed by Bennett with 10 and Davis with 8 tallies. The second half was a hard one, but Mexico never seriously threatened the Husky five. Whytock and B. Fraser were very outstanding for Mexico with 16 and 12 points to their credit.

In the second game of the preliminary round Fryeburg beat South Paris by the close score of 38-34.

Feb. 21—Playing off the finals in the second game of the evening after Fryeburg soundly whipped Norway by the score of 55-34, Gould defeated a spirited and fast playing team from West Paris to the tune of 49-25. Although West Paris played hard they were not able to match the taller and surer shooting Husky five. Taking the lead from the start, Gould was able to maintain a good lead all the way so that West Paris never seriously threatened the Husky position all though there were times when they scored hard and fast but never were able to keep the spurts of scoring going long enough to garner the winning points.

Bennett again starred with 16 points closely followed by Hamilton who chalked up 14 on his score board. Ring and G. Dougherty of West Paris gathered up 9 and 8 points respectively.

After the game was over Gould was presented with a trophy and West Paris received a similar trophy as runner-up.

GOULD FALLS TO GORHAM

Feb. 26—Playing without their usual spark and spirit, the Gould five dropped a heartbreaker in the preliminary round of the Western Maine Basifethall Tournament in the Lewiston Armory to undefeated Gorham by a score of 33-26. The fellows played hard all the way but could not seem to click and put in the counters.

Although the team lost the game, it ended its season with a record that it can well be proud of. The record was 14 wins and three losses and a total of 862 points against 524 for the opponents. Davis was high man with 258 points for the season, followed by Bennett with 134 points and Hamilton with 133 points. The team added another trophy to the already large collection by winning the Oxford County Tournament.

HUSKIES LOSE TO FRYEBURG

Feb. 10—A fourteen-point rally in the fourth block by Jerry Davis was not enough to keep the spirited Fryeburg hoopsters from defeating the Gould Huskies 41-38 on the Fryeburg court. The opposition stepped into an early lead which they maintained throughout the game. The confines of the court proved too much for the Bethel five and Fryeburg's tight defense slowed down the Gould set-ups to almost a standstill. Cole sank in 13 points for Fryeburg and Davis and Hamilton were responsible for 16 and 12 respectively, for Gould.

JAYVEES SCORE SECOND WIN OVER FRYEBURG J.V.'S

Feb. 13—Adding to their already excellent record, the Gould Jayvees defeated the Fryeburg Jayvees by a score of 35 to 27 and completed their season with a record of nine wins in ten games. Starting off fast and building up a good lead the Jayvees outplayed the Fryeburg team and set up a good lead so that a good part of the Jayvee squad was able to play in the game. Smith and Kendall led the Gould five with 14 and 8 points while Pierce and Walsh were high scorers for Fryeburg with 13 and 10 points each.
